IN AND ABOUT WESTERLY

Superior Court Proceedings on Friday—Four Indictments

Against Mandeville v. Hall—Lively Interest in Today's Games—Denison Family to Move to Norwich—Prizes for Local Dahlia-Grower.

There was a novel point of law presented in the superior court for Washington county before Judge Stearns at Kingston. It was the filing of a claim with Justice P. Clark for fifty years town and probate clerk of Richmond, an hour or so after Oscar E. Barber, his successor, had taken the oath of office. On this ground, counsel for the defense moved that a verdict for his client be directed, but the court overruled the motion and allowed the case to go to the jury, saving an exception. The jury, however, returned a verdict for the defendant later in the afternoon.

The case was that of Edmund B. Sheldon against Susan P. C. Widbur, administratrix of the estate of Abby Ann Hoxie of Richmond, with will annexed. Mr. Barber, attorney for the defense, asked the court to direct a verdict for the defense. The court was taken that the claim of Mr. Sheldon, which was a note for $1,000, was not properly filed in the Richmond probate court.

Next month it appeared that the claim had been filed with Halsey P. Clark, who indorsed the note on the back at 5 p. m. June 6, 1908. It also appeared that Mr. Barber had been sworn in as town and probate clerk at Westerly an hour before that time. Mr. Barber argued that from the moment Mr. Barber took the oath, Mr. Clark ceased to be the clerk and that the clerk's office ceased to be at Mr. Clark's house where it had been for half a century.

District Attorney Harry P. Cross presented a large criminal docket for next month which includes these cases of local interest:

Indictment against Mandeville D. Hall, alias Charles W. Stevens, for forgery and uttering checks upon the Fifth Avenue bank of New York, and cashing same at Watch Hill house. There are four indictments against Hall, and it is probable he will be placed on trial Monday.

Indictment against David Thompson for conveying away to Mandeville Hall to aid him to break jail at Kingston.

Indictment against John F. Barber, liquor nuisance.

Two indictments charging Joseph S. Grilla with embezzlement of funds placed with him on deposit as a private banker in Westerly.

Complaint of Constable Charles P. Eccles against liquor and vessels of John F. Barber, and against P. William Dougherty for keeping liquor for sale.

Complaint of Lucretia Spetzano against Christina Turano, alleged to be a lewd and wanton woman.

Complaint of Overseer of the Poor George B. Carpenter against Wilfred Collins of Westerly, charged with baseness.

Complaint of Sheriff John R. Wilcox against liquor and vessels of Salvatore Ferraro.

Complaint of Chief of Police Brannan against Charles Gabrielle, Oliver E. Gavitt, Antonio Salameno and Angelo Compagno, keeping liquor for sale.

At the conclusion of the Sheldon-Widbur case, the trial of the action of John G. Carr against John F. Barber, and others, to recover damages of $100, was commenced. Gurry alleges that by reason of a hawser being stretched from shore to shore in the Pawcatuck river, and with no danger signals set, damage was done his motor launch while coming up the river on the night of August 3, by collision with the hawser. The jurors not in this case were excused until Monday.

Judge Stearns in the superior court, Friday, issued a final decree of absolute divorce, in the case of Ida F. Burdick against Byron D. Burdick.

At the state rifle range at Rumford Thursday, Capt. Arthur N. Nash of Westerly, made the highest score at 400 yards, 47 out of a possible 50.

His score in detail: 4, 4, 5, 5, 23, 5, 5, 5, 4—total of 47. First Sgt. E. F. Freeman, Fifth company, Westerly, scored 41 and Private D. Harrington 39.

The highest score at the 50-yard line was shot by Dobson, 47 out of 50 of the cavalry, a total of 41. Lieut. Col. C. H. Leonard of Westerly and Lieut. C. G. Johnson of Warren, also scored 41, in the order named.

Weather being favorable it is expected that the biggest crowd ever at a baseball game in Westerly will assemble on the grassy grounds this (Saturday) afternoon to witness the two games between Westerly and Stonington in the 1909 season.

Westerly won the pennant, and championship title of the Rhode Island-Connecticut baseball league. The Westerly team is in fine fettle and with the position of superiority strengthened by Fergus, who is also a top-notch welder of the base homers expect to win, but should there be a split even Westerly would be still one game to the good. With the exception of Fergus, the makeup of the Westerly team is the same that won two games last Saturday in Stonington on their home grounds.

Ryan, O'Brien and Dugan are the trio of strengthening players for the Stonington team, and so it is that they were selected for the occasion from the array of baseball talent in Stonington and vicinity. Bill Brown, a resident of Westerly, and the crack first baseman of the Stonington team, is now employed at his trade, stone setting, at Stony Creek, and he is reported Friday afternoon that he could not leave his work and reach here in time to get into the game and that Rhodes would be substituted. Should Brown happen to be out of the game his absence will certainly be missed as none of the first basemen of the league has anything on Bill Brown.

Wakefield will play at Norwich and White Rock will go to Carolina for two games.

Local Laconics.

Rev. Samuel G. Babcock of Hyde Park, archdeacon of the Episcopal diocese of Boston, is visiting relatives in Westerly.

Charles P. Bentley of New Milford, Conn., is visiting in Westerly. He is son of Rev. Edwin D. Bentley, a former pastor of the First Baptist church.

Charles Crowley, Charles Ryan and James Collins, who have spent the summer at hotel business near Lake Champlain, returned to Westerly on Friday.

The members of Westerly Cyclone steam fire engine company, No. 2, attended the fair of the Stonington steam fire engine company in the borough Friday night.

Jeremiah Purtil, who is taking a week's vacation for the first time in thirty years, went to Newport Friday to spend a few days with his brother, William Purtil.

James P. O'Garra was adjudged guilty of being a common drunkard by Judge Williams of the Third district court, and sentenced to six months in the state workhouse.

Rev. George Fear of New York will assist Rev. F. Lusk in a series of revival meetings at Grace Methodist church, commencing Sunday, when he will preach morning and evening.

Elizabeth Denison, a well known saleswoman in a local dry goods store, will enter the display of Porteus & Mitchell in Norwich Monday, and in a short time the family will move from Westerly to Norwich. Miss Mary Denison is in the Backus hospital nurses' training school.

George L. Stillman was a big prize winner for his display of dahlias at the exhibit in the American Institute in New York. He was awarded first prize for the best twenty-five blossoms of dahlias, first on best collection of single cactus dahlias, first on best collection of single cactus dahlias shown in one case, a special on fifty blossoms in one collection, and a special on a growing plant of the green dahlia. Mr. Stillman was also awarded first prize on collection of dahlias and second on collection of cut flowers at the Vermont state fair.

The net proceeds from the presentation of The Union Depot, by the committee from the Congregational church, was $61.50. The ticket sale was over $100.

An Episcopal service will be held in St. Peter's church Sunday afternoon. The Rev. J. E. Brown will officiate.

COLCHESTER

Later to represent the church at the Baptist convention to be held at Mystic October 19-20, Deacon Lucius C. Brown will attend the convention as a representative of the Sunday school.

Fair Postponed.

On account of bad weather Thursday the Colchester Grange fair was postponed until Friday.

Edward Bump, Harry Grobert, Harry Wickwire, Dr. Shurtliff and F. E. Baker were at the Hamburg fair.

Beginning Sunday, the 26th, there will be preaching in the Methodist church Sunday evenings. Rev. Mr. Prent of Wesleyan, who has been in charge the past year, will continue his work.

FUNERAL.

Mrs. Michael T. O'Connell.

The funeral of Mrs. Ann O'Connell, which took place from St. Andrew's church Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, was one of the largest ever held in Colchester.

Many friends and relatives from the surrounding towns were present, so many coming from Moodus that it was necessary to close the Falls mill.

Mrs. O'Connell was a kind and charitable woman and the hospitality of her home was known far beyond the community in which she lived. She was ever ready to lend a helping hand to those in need and her devout Christian life will remain a shining example to all with whom she came in contact.

A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. M. H. May of Colchester. Rev. John H. McDonald of Hartford was in attendance. Rev. Francis May of Milford and Rev. Philip J. Mooney master of ceremonies. Rev. Dennis P. Hurley and Rev. John Kane of East Hartford were present in the sanctuary.

There were many beautiful floral tributes.

The bearers were John O'Brien,

Timothy Kelly, Jeremiah O'Connor and Michael Brides.

The flower bearers were Dr. James J. Tynah of Colchester, George H. Brides of Hartford, David H. Chapman of Moodus and George V. Cavanaugh. Besides her husband, Michael T. O'Connell, she leaves four sons, Dr. Thomas S. of East Hartford, John J. assistant superintendent of an insurance company, Lynn, Mass., Attorney Michael D. of Stamford Springs, and Attorney Richard T. of East Hartford, and five daughters, Mary of Naugatuck, Nellie of Colchester, Katherine of East Hampton, local manager of the Southern New England telephone office, Annie, who has charge of the Colchester exchange, and Margaret, who teaches in Moodus.

Stamford.—Mrs. Franz Stollwerck, who came here from Germany a few months ago with her husband, who is one of the owners of the chocolate works, died Tuesday afternoon. She underwent an operation a month ago.

Middletown.—The special freight train, which has been run for the past two weeks to handle the large shipments of peaches, was withdrawn Wednesday night as the peach season is about over.
